THE MOST SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

Of Greensboro's Two Insurance Companies.

ANNUAL MEETINGS HELD TODAY.

Upwards of Ten Thousand People in the State Are Interested as Policy Holders in These Companies.

There was held today in Greensboro the annual meetings of the two Greensboro insurance companies, the Southern Stock-Mutual and the Underwriters. These meetings are of more than local importance because the stockholders of these companies represent nearly every section of the state of North Carolina and larger business interests and greater aggregation of capital than any orgadization in the state Besides there are upwards of 10,000 people in North Carolina who are interested directly as policy holders in the profits of the companies.

These companies have just completed the most successful year since their organization. One of the companies is just entering upon its sixth year, the other upon its third year. During the year 1899, the two companies increased their assets from $233,731 45 to $254,818 87 and their reserve for re-insurance (emergency fund) from $29,680 39 to $43,415 41 and their surplus from $12,632 40 to $17,816 81 The year 1899 shows an increase in premium receipts from $70,855.67 to $88,543.62, being an increase of 13 per cent. The record which these companies have made since their organization is a very remarkable one and the figures given below challenge comparison.

Total premiums since oeganization, $185,139.99.

Total losses since organization $36,547.87.

Dividends to policy holders since organization, $29,782 06.

Annual loss ratio, 19¼ per cent.

On account of the continued hostility of the South Eastern Tariff Association evidenced by the recent general cut in rates in North Carolina on hose classes of risks which the Southern Stock-Mutual and Underwriters have made a specialty of writing, the stockholders have deemed it prudent to make the policyholders' dividend on the business of the past year 15 per cent instead of 20 per cent, as heretofore, thereby "hedging" against the South Eastern Tariff Association. The policyholders of the companies cannot fail to endorse this course, especially since the 5 per cent which has been withheld from the dividend account and carried to the emergency fund will be applied towards increasing the policyholders' dividends in subsequent years. These companies deserve all the success they have achieved and more, for besides the thousands of dollars they are annually returning directly to property owners in dividends, they have forced other companies to a recent reduction in rates which will save not less than $100,000 per year to the people of North Carolina.

Read the Following Suggestion and Act Upon It.

It being a fact that the present epidemic of smallpox is for the most part confined to the districts of the city occpied by colored people, it is hereby recommended that all persons employing colored help of any kind see to it that each and overy one of such persons are vaccinated at once. This, as it will be observed, is for the protection of both employer and employe. And further, all white persons having laundry done by colored women should see that all persons in such houses are vaccinated, or remove the washing from such houses.

And it is important that the white people lend all moral support to vaccinate and re-vaccination in order to encourage vaccination amongst the colored people.

BULLER CROSSED TUGELA

And London is Wild With Enthusiasm

A STRONG BRITISH MOVEMENT

Warren's Division Forded at Wagon Drift Under Hot Fire—Boers Evidently Strongly Entrenched.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Jan. 18—London is wild with enthusiasm over the news that General Buller has crossed Tugela river, and is fighting his way to Ladysmith at last. A large British column is way into Zululand to work around the extreme eastern flank of the Boers and head for Utrechy and Vryheid districts.

PATROL AMBUSHED

Rensburg, Jan. 17—(delaye')—A patrol of sixteen men, New South Wales lancers and South Australians, were ambushed yesterday by Boers and overwhelmed after severe fighting Eight escaped and arrived at the camp, while six were captured. One dead Australian and one wounded were found on the scene of the fight. A number of dead Boer horses were also found, showing the fight to have been a fierce one. It appears that the Australians encountered the first body of Boers and finding the retreat cut off they galloped near by Kopje, hoping to beat the Boers, but on arriving found another body of Boers concealed there.

WARREN CROSSES.

Springfield, Natal, Jan. 17.—General Warren's division forded at Wagon Drift in gallant fashion, facing a hot fire from the Boer artillesy and infantry. The Boers, however, made no determined effort to contest the crossing and fell back firing on their main position. At the north bank a detachment found a farm house called Rheynodcerf [illegible] full of the enemy who had remained there to harass the British. They fled on the approach of Warren's troops after firing a volley. Warren later occupied a position at Spion's Kop, opposite the Boer's center, five miles north of the river. As yet the Boers have not replied to the British bombardment They are evidently strongly entrenched.

London, Jan. 18.—A Cape Town special says it is persistently reported that Ladysmith has been relieved. The war office has received a despatch from Lord Roberts stating that he received a despatch from General Buller that one brigade and a Howitzer battery had crossed the Tugela at Potgeiters Drift, and that five miles further west General Warren had thrown a pontoon bridge over the river, by means of which a portion of his forces crossed the river yesterday. The remainder is expected to be on the north bank by Friday. General Warren hopes to be able to turn the enemy's position, which, five miles off his right front, is being strongly entrenched.

Rumor That Anna Gould's Husband Has Become Bankrupt.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Jan. 18—Matin says that Count Boni de Castellane, the husband of Anna Gould, has been posted in the Bourse for failure to meet obligations. It is announced today that the count, with his wife, will make a trip to New York in an effort to get out of their financial trouble. The count, in a speculation on the stock exchange, lost six hundred thousand dollars recently, in industrial stocks. Seven or eight brokers are interested. It is expected he will raise money in America.

The Marquis de Castellane, in an interview today, denies that his son failed to meet obligations, and says his son never speculates. He explains the fact that his son and wife's going away to America was taken advantage of to start false rumors.

Sat Down on Him.

The elder James Gordon Bennett, the mentor of daily journalism, once sat down on his managing editor very heavily The editor came to Bennett and said that a new man named Smith had brought in many "big points." The editor was half in favor of employing Smith on the regular staff, "but," he said, "Mr. Bennett, the man can't write grammar." The man was sent for He came into the awful presence. He was questioned. The young man knew every politician, banker, merchant and public man in the city. He knew every steamship, every exchange, and, every public office. Bennett was impressed. After questioning the young man for awhile, he told the editor to employ him. "And his grammar?" said the editor. Then Bennet showed his greatness as a journalist. "D—— grammer! Give us facts!" The young man not only mastered grammar, but was the star on the Herald for many years.

THURSDAY, JAN 18, 1900.

At the meeting of the tobacco growers in Raleigh yesterday, Mr. J. F. Jordan's plan for fighting the tobacco trust was adopted. Mr. Jordan made a ringing speech in presenting his plan, and was enthusiastically applauded. There was a large attendance and the delegates appeared to be be very much in earnest.

According to reports the negro magistrates who are yet in office down east are beginning the business which brought on the hot campaign of 1898. And if it is kept up there will be another warm time during 1900, and thereafter, until matters are regulated. That can be chewed or smoked to suit the taste.

General Wheeler is coming home from the Philippines. His patriotism will stand the test and will register as high as any man in the nation; that is the principal reason he is in the Philippines. His patriotism overbalanced his better judgment. His courage and bravery cannot be doubted; but if General Wheeler had seen the business before he went as he sees it now he would have stayed at home. The general has not so stated, in so many words, but we believe such to be the case.

The gain made in High Point in favor of municipal ownership of waterworks, as shown by comparison of the last election with the first, should encourage those good people who are struggling to improve the town, to make another effort. High Point has too much at stake to be without a good system of water works, and the plant would easily pay the interest on the bonds from the start. It need not, if properly managed, be even a temporary burden on the tax payers, and is strange there were not enough progressive people in the hustling manufacturing town to carry the bond issue. Pick your flints, good people, and give municipal ownership another trial before granting a franchise to a private corporation—but get water works.

FIRST NEWS IN DETAIL.

A Graphic Account of the Assault on Ladysmith.

London, Jan. 18—The first detailed report of the assault on Ladysmith is given in a dispatch from there, published today, by The Standard. It is dated Ladysmith, January 6, via Frere, January 17, and makes the first mention of the capture of the Highlanders. It shows the garrison was surprised and several times the situation was critical. Everyone of thirty Gordon Highlanders who surrendered was wounded. The dispatch follows:

"The enemy today made a determined effort to capture two positions, Caesar's Camp and Wagon Hill. The latter is a lofty menace to the southwest, possession of which would have brought them within rifle range of the town. Caesar's Camp was held by the first battalion of the Manchester regiment. The position was separated from that of the Boers by a rocky ravine. In the morning darkness, the Heidelberg commando, evaded our pickets, and reached the foot of the slope at 2:30 o'clock. Before the danger could be realized, the outlying Sangers had been rushed and their defenders slain. On hearing the firing, two companies of the Gordon Highlanderi went to the assistance of the Manchesters. The Boers were thought to be concentrating on the southern slope, where they had already secured a footing on the plateau. Here, however, their advance was checked by the steady volleys of our infantry and the deadly fire of an automatic gun. The camp was being assailed on the left flank and on the front. By daybreak reinforcements of Gordon Highlanders and of the rifle brigade had been hurried up to the fighting line. Lieutenant Colonel Dick Cunyngham, who was leading the Gordons out of camp, fell mortally wounded, being hit by a stray bullet while still close to the town. The Fifty-third battery of field artillery, under Major Abdy, crossed the river and shelled the ridge and reverse slope of the front position, where the enemy were lying among the third bushes. The shrapnel which flew over our heads did terrible execution. It effectually held the Boers in check and stopped their reinforcements through the ravine.

"The enemy fought with stubborn courage. Their 6 inch gun on Uubulwana Mountain and the smaller satellites, threw more than 100 shells at Abdy's battery and at the troops on the hill. Our troops, however, were not less gallant and reserved, and the enemy was pressed back step by step until at length those who were left broke and fled in utter disorder. A terrific storm of rain and hail, accompanied by peals of thunder, had burst over the camp during the fighting. This served to swell the streams into raging torrents. In their efforts to escape numbers of the enemy flung themselves into the current and were swept away. The struggle in this part of the field was now ended, and the finale was a terrific fusilade all along the line, the crush of which almost drowned the incessant thunder above.

"Meanwhile, a more exciting contest was in progress in the direction of Wagon Hill. At 2 o'clock a storming party, furnished by the Harrismith commando, crept slowly and cautiously along a donga in the valley, which divides our posts from their camp. A few well aimed rifle shots killed our pickets. Taking advantage of every inch of cover the Boers then gradually reached the crest or the heights. Here a body of Light Horse was posted, but they were forced to retire before the advance of the Free Staters, behind breastworks. With little to impede the progress the enemy soon came to an emplacement, where they surprised working parties of the Gordon Highlanders and the Sixtieth Rifles. Lieut Digby Jones, of the Royal Engineers, collected a handful of men, made a gallant effort to hold the position, but the numbers were against him and after a stubborn resistance he was driven back and the enemy got possession of the summit. Even then, however, the Free Staters were afraid to venture far, or to face the heavy fire from the Sangar. Here it was that Lieutenant McKenna and 30 of the Gordons were captured, although not until every man among them was wounded.

"At 5 o'clock Colonel Edwards, with two squadrons of the Light Horse, arrived upon the scene, and the Twenty-first Battery of the Royal Field Artillery, under Major Blewitt, came into action, preventing the storming party being re-inforced from the Boer Camp. The Eighteenth Hussars and the Fifth Lancers, meantime, checked the movement on our right flank. Our position at this point had become critical. Our men had retired for cover behind the northern slope, while the enemy had made their way into the pass dividing them from the hill. Major Bowen rallied a few of the rifles, but fell while leading them to the charge. His example was followed by Lieutenant Todd, but the latter met the same fate.

"The enemy were making good the footing they had already secured in the emplacement, when Major Miller Walnutt, calling the scattered Gordons together charged in and drove them back. Having thus cleared the ground, he joined Lieutenant Digby Jones in a newly prepared emplacement on the western shoulder.

"A pause ensued for a time, but the Boers were not yet finally beaten. Taking advantage of the storm now raging, they assayed to capture the position by another rush. Three of their leaders reached the parapet, but were shot down by Lieutenant Digby Jones and Lieutenant Walnutt, the latter of whom also fell. The renewed check practically ended the duel, though small parties of the braver spirits kept up a murderous fire on our men from behind the rocks.

MOLINEUX TRIAL DRAGS.

The Prosecution Continues to Introduce Handwriting Experts.

New York, Jan. 16—Most of today's proceedings in the Molineux trial were taken up by the testimony of Albert S. Osborn, the handwriting expert, who explained the peculiarities in the Molineux writing which convinced him that he wrote the address on the poison package and the Barnett and Cornish letters. Just before the close today Joseph J. Koch, proprietor of an advertising agency and private letter box business on Broadway, to which the patent medicines were sent in reply to all the "Cornish" letters, swore that Molineux himself came to inquire about renting the box, and later it was let to a bogus "H. Cornish," whom, he said, he thinks he has since seen in the grand jury room. During Koch's examination Cornish was asked to stand up, and the witness swore positively that he was not the man who hired the box.

CENSUS APPOINTMENTS.

North Carolina Democrats Will be Scarce Among Them.

Washington, January 18, 1900.

Special to The Telegram.

North Carolina will, it is believed, secure very few democratic appointments under the twelfth census. A rule was adopted some time ago that where the senators were both republicans, the republicans would be entitled to all of the appointments. In states where the senators are both democrats, the appointments were to be divided among the two parties, and the states where one senator was of each party, the democrats were to secure a share of the appointments. North Carolina has no democratic senator, and consequently under the rule adopted, the state will not get many democrats in the census. Senator Butler will be entitled to some appointments, of course, but the appointees will naturally be members of the populist party.

It was stated at the census office the other day by Director Merriam, that there are a large number of applications for appointments on file, for positions in the clerical force at Washington coming from North Carolina. Director Merriam stated that very few census office appointments for clerical duty at this point would be announced before next June or July. For these positions it is requisite to take the census office's examination. For clerical appointments the endorsement of the two North Carolina senators, or the members of congress will of course have great weight with Director Merriam. The endorsement of the members of the republican state committee of North Carolina, would also be of much value to persons desiring census office appointments at Washington.

It is announced that M. J. A. Crews, Sr., a veteran newspaper man of North Carolina, and who has been connected with the Wilmington Messenger for the past ten years, will make a tour of the world via San Francisco, and will visit every civilized country on the globe. He is said to have valuable letters of endorsement from the secretary of state, from Senators Pritchard and Butler, and from nearly all of the members of the house of representatives from North Carolina, as well as from prominent officials and public men in the state. Mr. Crews, it is said, will start on his long journey within a few days.

The department of agriculture has been making some important and interesting experiments in the hybridization of oranges, pineapples and citrus, and even in wheat. In regard to hybrid oranges, they have procured about sixty different species, which the department officials, and those interested, claim will withstand the frosts and blights incident to latitudes as far north as North Carolina. The same is true regarding pineapples, which it is claimed can be grown as far North as South Carolina.

The agricultural department is contemplating, it is said, the sending of a number of the different species to the various colleges, and universities throughout the Southern States, for experimental purposes.

BRYAN AT FRANKFORT.

Banqueted by the Democrats of the Legislature.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 16—Col. William Jennings Bryan was banqueted by the democrats of the Kentucky legislature tonight. The banquet was a celebration of the election of Senator Blackburn. Mr. Bryan was met at the train by a committee of which Blackburn and Goebel were members. Ex-Governor James B. McCreary presided as toastmaster.

Mr. Bryan responded to the toast "the democratic party; its future and its politics;" Senator Blackburn "Old Kentucky," and Senator William Goebel, "Kentucky and her relations to the national democracy."

He Only Repeats What has been Around the World.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher, of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what his been said around the globe when he he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

A Lingering Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Iowa, writing of his almost miraculous escape from death says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Farmer Thrifty got the idea that if he could keep a horse without the cost of feeding, it would be a great economy, so he reduced the horse's food a little every day. Unfortunately just as the experiment promised to succeed, the horse laid down and died. Farmer Hardsense says Farmer Thrifty was a fool. But there are people as much worse than old Thrifty as it is more foolish to work your own body under starvation conditions, than your horse's. But every farmer has plenty to eat. Yes, but it isn't what is eaten, it is what nourishment is obtained from food that decides the question of starvation. It wouldn't do the farmer any good to run a stack of wheat through a thrashing machine which was so out of gear that it didn't get the grain out of one head of wheat in fifty. That's just the way with the disordered stomach. It doesn't get the good out of the food that is eaten.

There is no medicine will so quickly act on the organs of digestion and nutrition, and put the stomach in perfect working order, as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It makes pure blood, and rich blood, and puts the body on a plane of perfect health.

WHEELER WILL RETURN.

The Little General Tired of Life in the Philippines.

Washington, Jan. 17—War department officers deny that General Wheeler has resigned.

It is true that he is returning to the United States, but this is in pursuance of direct orders to return home and report to the war department for instructions. This action is taken as the result of a communication received from General Wheeler by the president, inquiring if he should remain in the Philippines.

At the time General Wheeler took the unusual course of addressing the president regarding his military future, the president was, of course, unable to advise Wheeler, and a reply to that effect was cabled him. Then Wheeler expressed a desire to return, and on January 15 an order was telegraphed by Corbin directing him to proceed at once to San Francisco and there report to the adjutant general of the army for directions from the secretary of war.

It is probable that he will be directed to proceed to Washington to report so the Secretary of War or be placed on leave of absence.

Gaining a Wide Reputation.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D B. Johnston, of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. My foot was swollen and pained me very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me. For sale by O. E. Holton, druggist.

BRYAN IN BALTIMORE.

Gorman and Others, It Is Said, Will Not Attend the Meeting

Former Secretary Gorman will not take part in the reception of William J. Bryan at Music Hall, in this city, next Saturday night. Neither will a number of the gold democratic leaders of Maryland. Governor Smith is a sound money man; so is Edwin Warfield and the majority of the influential democrats of Baltimore. Mr. Bryan comes here on the invitation os the Maryland Democratic Association and Bryan Club. They have engaged him to deliver an address. Both above-named associations are strongly committed to the Chicago platform. They are not a part of the regular democratic organization of the state or city. The presence of Mr. Bryan in Baltimore will prove rather embarrassing to the regular democratic organization.

The Maryland leaders are shy about recognizing his claim to leadership because in Maryland his principles were defeated by 30,000 plurality in 1896, and it was only by eliminating Bryan and free silver entirely from the fight last fall that the democrats carried the state.—Baltimore Dispatch to Philadelphia Times.

E. J Justice Not a Candidate.

Marion, Jan. 17—Mr. E. J. Justice has been spoken of as the probable democratic nominee for judge in this district. He told me me today that his name will not be presented to the convention. His reason for this decision is that as his father, Hon. M. H. Justice, is a candidate for the nomination for governor and some friends of the latter might be embarrassed if Mr. E. J. Justice were on the state ticket, it might be suggested that the name of father and son should not be on the state ticket together.

LUCKY DEUCE OF SPADES.

Remarkable Run of Luck, but All For the Other Man.

One by one the old superstitions are being torn from us. People nowadays walk ostentatiously under ladders and suffer no evil consequences. Friday is quite a popular day for the commencement of a long journey, and sitting down 13 at dinner is frequently unattended with untoward results. A deeply rooted superstition among card players is a belief in the lucky properties of the two of spades. The present writer's faith, however, was severely shaken by a phenomenal coincidence which occurred only a few days ago.

Sitting down to a game of whist, he thoroughly shuffled both packs of cards, and happened to notice that the two of spades was the bottom card of one of the packs.

"This ought to bring me luck," he remarked to his friends.

He then took up the second pack, and was astonished to find that the two of spades was also at the bottom of that. Words failed to express his amazement when, in drawing for partners and deal —the cards had been shuffled again—he once more drew the two of spades.

The odds against this triple event occurring must be enormous, but more was to follow. The deal fell to the writer, and the turn up card was the inevitable two of spades!

After this the dealer felt justified in believing he was in for a good evening. As a matter of fact, he lost six rubbers in succession.—London Mail.

Children and Dolls.

Writing in The Contemporary Review, Professor Sully discusses the curious aspects in which children regard dolls. He says: Professor Hall has brought to light some curious preferences of children. He tells us, for example, that, whereas out of 845 children 191 preferred wax dolls, as many as 144 pronounced in favor of rag ones. Odd preferences are sometimes shown with regard to size. A lady writes me that she preferred 4 inch halfpenny dolls because there was so much more to be done with these in the way of putting on wigs made from doormats, inking in eyebrows, etc. On the other hand, another English lady tells me that her childish ambition was the possession of a big doll—"one that would fill my arms and take some of the cuddling that I wanted to bestow and which nobody seemed to want." This girl image is, so far as the uninitiated adult can divine, the true child's doll.

Coalfields of the World.

Geologists estimate the great coalfields of the world in square miles as follows: China, 200,000; United States, east of the Rockies, 190,000; Canada, 65,000; India, 35,500; New South Wales, 24,000; Russia, 20,000, and the United Kingdom, 11,500. There are many deposits in other countries, but their extent is inconsiderable. England's coal area is small; still she for years produced more than any other country. Now the United States is ahead. English coal veins are thin; one only 14 inches wide has been worked 1,200 feet down. On the other hand, there are veins in the Pennsylvania anthracite region 60 feet thick and in the bituminous regions 18 feet thick. Our Appalachian coalfields are the largest known, and alone could supply the whole world for centuries to come.

An Original Oath of Allegiance.

In the old days when the Spanish province of Aragon was a proud and independent monarchy the people used, when choosing their king, the following singular form of election:

"We, the freeborn inhabitants of the ancient kingdom of Aragon, who are equal to you, Don Philip, and something more, elect you to be our king on condition that you preserve to us our rights and privileges. If in this you should fail, we own you for our king no longer."—Harper's Round Table.

NEGROISM STILL ALIVE.

Black Supremacy's Head Lifted Again at Newberne.

Newbern, N. C., Jan. 17—Negro supremacy made an effort to manifest itself in this city once more today, but was promptly and heartily crushed.

A negro magistrate yesterday summoned a gentleman to appear before him as ten o'clock this morning to answer charges brought by two other negroes. The news spread like wild fire, and by nine o'clock this morning it was practically known by every one.

Promptly at half-past nine a committee waited on the negro magistrate, whose name is Chapman, and informed him that it would be unhealthy for him to proceed further in the matter. The said negro magistrate saw the point and made haste to transfer the case to a white magistrate.

The people here are determined to have no more negroism, no matter what measures may be necessary to suppress it.

AN EARLIER ACCOUNT.

yesterday, since the exciting times of the days before the election of 1898 has the city been disturbed by the curse of its negro magistrates.

The Journal, in the days of 1894, when the negro magistrates ran their riotous course in this city, having white men and women summoned before them, kept the public pretty well informed of this nefarious trade.

The election of November, 1898, with the first blow struck and victory secured for White Supremacy, caused a total cessation of this negro magistrate business, it was "too warm," not to mention its unpopularity, and the negro magistrate went out of business.

But times seems to have lulled these magistrates at least one of them, into the idea that the election of 1898 was so far in the past that white supremacy was not a special issue of today.

In this city a case is set for this morning, to be heard, if not tried before a negro magistrate.

The magistrate, M. W. Chapman, is to hear a case, in which some colored men have taken out a labor lien against a white man.

Just how much of trial this will be is to be seen. It is full of interest as it indicates a revival of the negro magistrate.—Newbern Journal.

The legislative commission, to compute state election returns, met yesterday at Harrisonburg and performed it perfunctory duty.

A FINE SHOWING

Made by the Greensboro Loan and Trust Company.

The annual meeting of the Greensboro Loan and Trust Company was held at noon yesterday at the office of the company. Mr. J. A. Odell was called to the chair and Mr. W. E. Allen elected secretary

The president made a report of the affairs of the company from October 2d, 1899, when it commenced business, to December 31st, a period of three months.

The stockholders were much gratified at the fine showing made in such a short time, and with the bright prospect for new business.

The secretary was instructed to cast the unanimous vote of the stockholders for the members of the old board of directors, as follows:

J. A Odell, R. M. Rees, Geo. S Sergeant, R. R. King, J. S. Cox, B. F. Mebane, W. L. Grissom, W. D. McAdoo, R. P. Gray, J. W. Fry, Greensboro; John Gill, Baltimore, Md; W. H Watkins, Ramseur, N C.; O. R. Cox, Cedar Falls, N. C.; W. F Williams, Red Springs, N. C; J A Hadley, Mount Airy, N C; S. Bryant, Randleman, N. C.; J. Elwood Cox, High Point, N. C.

The secretary was also instructed to cast the full vote for the members of the old examining board, as follows: C. A. Bray, C. M. Vanstory and J. W. Lindan.

After the stockholders adjourned the new board of directors organized and re-elected the following officers:

President—J. W. Fry.
Vice-president—J. S. Cox.
Secretary and treasurer—W. E. Allen.
Bookkeeper—W. T. Smith.
Members of executive committee—J. A. Odell, J. S Cox, R M. Rees.
Members of finance committee—Geo. S. Sergeant, B. Frank Mebane, W D McAdoo.

Wanted to Lynch Him.

Two Greensboro gentlemen were standing at Cleg's corner, near the depot today discussing the Boers' assault on Ladysmith, when a big six footer, a brawny fellow with broad shoulders, wearing a broad brimmed slouch hat, underneath which was a scowling face, who was leaning against an electric light pole, became interested. He overheard the remark that the assault on Ladysmith was a terrible affair, and immediately wanted to know what Smith it was, if it took place here in the city, and raising his voice to an excited pitch, demanded: "Why didn't they lynch the scoundrel?"

Try Kadok-Headache Powders, 3 Doses 10c. Cures all aches in the head pleasantly.

THE GREATEST yet, is the new machine now on exhibition at 112 E Market street You dictate a letter and the machine talks it back to the typewriter, and it always correct.

THE SMALLPOX.

One New Case—A Seventeen Days' Old Baby.

Mr. John T. Hunt's seventeen days old baby has smallpox. This is the only new case reported in the past two days. The child was exposed soon after it was born, through the servants employed from a district where the disease was prevalent.

All the cases heretofore reported are now confined in the hospital and are getting along all right. Those having the matter in hand are energetic in their efforts, and everything is working like clock work to stamp out the disease.

Tomorrow morning at eight o'clock physicians will be at the market house to vaccinate colored people, and those who are not able to pay the charges will be vaccinated free. It must be done. If the colored population were as well protected by vaccination as the white people there would have been no smallpox in the city at all. They must be protected. If they will not voluntarily come up and be vaccinated they will be brought up. Public health and business demands it and it must be done Look at the splendid example set by President Dudley, of the A. & M college. If his race will follow him they will be led aright.

Notice of Dissolution

The firm of Hatch & Brunson, furniture dealers, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent, T A Hatch purchasing the business and will continue at the old stand under the firm name of T. A. Hatch & Co., who assume all the liabilities of the late firm
